EXTRAIT DES RÉGLEMENTS

Retour des livres. — Tout livre en location doit être retourné dans les quinze jours. Cependant si, dans l'intervalle, aucun abonné n'en a fait la demande, l'ouvrage peut être gardé pour une seconde période de quinze jours, à condition de faire renouveler l'inscription par le bibliothécaire.

Ponctualité dans le retour des livres. — Les directeurs de la bibliothèque n'ont pas voulu recourir à un système d'amendes à appliquer aux abonnés qui négligeraient de retourner les livres dans le délai de rigueur ; mais ils comptent sur leur bonne volonté et leur ponctualité dans l'observance du réglement à cet égard, toute infraction pouvant causer des désappointements à d'autres abonnés désireux de se procurer à leur tour l'ouvrage retenu au mépris des règles.

Cartes d'abonnement. — Les cartes d'abonnement sont strictement personnelles et ne pourront en aucun cas être transférées par les titulaires. Les livres ne seront délivrés que sur présentation de la carte, qui sera placée dans le volume à sa sortie. Les abonnés qui retourneraient un livre sans en prendre d'autre au même moment, devront déposer leur carte entre les mains du Bibliothécaire, qui la leur remettra lorsqu'ils viendront chercher de nouveaux ouvrages.

Responsabilité des abonnés. — Tout livre perdu par un abonné devra être remplacé à ses dépens et le retour d'un livre endommagé assujettira l'abonné au paiement des frais de réparation ou d'un montant, à fixer par les directeurs de la Bibliothèque, représentant la diminution de valeur résultant du dommage causé. Les abonnés sont instamment priés de donner immédiatement connaissance au Bibliothécaire de toute souillure ou dégât quelconque qu'ils constateraient dans les livres et qui pourrait avoir échappé à son examen.

Soin des livres. — Les livres ne doivent pas être confiés à des enfants ni exposés à la pluie et aux intempéries.

Mesures d'ordre. — Il est formellement défendu d'amener des chiens et de fumer dans le local de la Bibliothèque et ses dépendances.

AVERTISSEMENT

Nous n'avons pas à entrer dans de minutieux détails sur le catalogue que nous présentons aujourd'hui au public. Le lecteur les trouvera dans la préface à la section anglaise.

Nous nous contenterons, pour l'édification des personnes auxquelles la langue anglaise n'est pas familière, d'exposer les données principales et d'énoncer les grandes lignes de l'œuvre.

Le catalogue tout entier a été dressé sur le plan de M. Alfred Cotgreave, membre de la Library Association, un catalogographe expérimenté dont le nom fait autorité en Angleterre. Le système de M. Cotgreave consiste dans une combinaison éminemment pratique embrassant à la fois les divers plans généralement connus et adoptés, pour en condenser sous la forme alphabétique les informations et les avantages et en supprimer les inconvénients et les longueurs.

A ce titre, notre catalogue sera en France une révélation et il doit être considéré comme une tentative basée sur l'expérience étrangère, plutôt que comme une formule définitive à recommander aux catalographes de l'avenir. Si divergentes sont en effet les façons de voir de l'un et de l'autre peuple, que ce qui passe outre-Manche pour le dernier mot de l'art pourrait bien heurter des idées préconçues et ne pas plaire au public français.

Ni l'auteur du plan ni le compilateur n'affichent de prétentions à l'impeccabilité ; leur travail est une œuvre de réflexion et de bonne foi et, s'ils se sont trompés, on voudra bien leur tenir compte de leurs intentions et de leurs efforts.

Il ne faut pas perdre de vue que l'ère des bibliothèques populaires est à peine ouverte, que la lecture a été jusqu'en ces dernières années l'apanage du petit nombre et que les catalogues ont toujours été dressés en vue de répondre aux besoins des bibliophiles et des lettrés.

A une classe nouvelle et peu instruite de lecteurs, il fallait un catalogue simplifié tout en restant complet ; c'est en s'inspirant de cette nécessité pressante que les catalogueurs anglais et américains sont arrivés à abandonner le système de la classification pour lui substituer le plan alphabétique, en y intercalant, sous forme de rappels et de renvois, en abrégé, les éléments qui constituaient la valeur de l'ancien procédé.

L'inspection du catalogue en dira plus long sur ce sujet que tous les commentaires. La simplicité de la méthode est telle, en effet, que les avantages en sautent aux yeux, et il suffit d'cuvrir le catalogue et d'en feuilleter les pages pour se convaincre des facilités offertes aux lecteurs et, nous aimons à insister là-dessus, mises à la portée des moins instruits.

Et d'abord, en principe, afin d'éviter des répétitions qui eussent fait du catalogue un livre embrouillé et encombrant, la désignation complète des ouvrages ne se trouve que sous le nom de leur auteur. On aura remarqué déjà que notre plan amalgame auteurs et sujets dans l'ordre aphabétique. Sous le nom de l'auteur donc, on est certain de trouver les titres des livres dans leur entièreté, avec le nombre de volumes, si l'ouvrage en a plusieurs, la date de publication et autres renseignements secondaires, par exemple la mention : ill., si le livre contient des gravures explicatives du texte. Ailleurs, le titre a pu être écourté, au besoin la date de publication supprimée, pour ménager l'espace, et cela sans inconvénient, puisqu'il suffit au lecteur de se reporter au nom de l'auteur pour obtenir d'emblée les détails les plus complets.

Les sujets importants se détachent du reste en gros caractères et sous des rubriques telles que : FRANCE, ANGLETERRE, HISTOIRE, BIOGRAPHIE, BEAUX-ARTS, etc., non-seulement le lecteur trouvera la nomenclature complète des livres qui s'y rapportent, mais de plus, à la suite, en petit texte, une liste d'ouvrages qui se rattachent plus ou moins directement, en tout ou en partie, au sujet désigné et dans lesquels le lecteur puisera souvent d'utiles renseignements sur des points spéciaux qui lui eussent échappé, si son attention n'eût été attirée sur ces livres par ces brefs rappels.

Ces renvois ou références, qui forment une nouveauté de notre catalogue, ne seront probablement pas du goût des lettrés ; mais nous avons la conviction qu'ils seront appréciés à leur juste valeur par le public populaire, pour qui ils constitueront le meilleur des guides et la plus sûre des boussoles.

Nous croyons superflu, tant la méthode suivie est simple et aisée à comprendre, de nous appesantir davantage sur les mérites du système et d'entrer dans des considérations techniques auxquelles l'intelligence du lecteur suppléera tout naturellement. Il nous suffira de dire que les numéros des volumes se lisent à la droite de chaque page et que si deux volumes sont reliés par un trait d'union (par exemple 1505-6I), cela signifie que l'ouvrage se compose de deux volumes, tandis que si les deux numéros sont reliés par la conjonction "et" (par exemple 1505 et 1506I), il en ressort que la Bibliothèque possède deux exemplaires de l'ouvrage, l'un portant le premier, l'autre le second de ces numéros.

Les romans ont été publiés séparément à la suite du catalogue général, pour la plus grande facilité d'une classe considérable de lecteurs.

Nous n'ignorons pas que cette collection d'ouvrages français est loin d'être complète et que de nombreux vides sont à regretter dans les sujets et quelquefois aussi sous les noms des auteurs ; mais cette apparente anomalie s'explique, si l'on considère que nous vivons dans un milieu bilingue, où la langue française, demeurée l'idiome officiel, disparaît peu à peu devant l'anglais, devenu le véhicule de la pensée pour la presque totalité de la population, et qu'il nous a fallu, dans le choix des livres, tenir compte de l'esprit particulier à la Grande-Bretagne et écarter ainsi certains ouvrages qui eussent été admis en France sans récriminations. De plus, la plupart des ouvrages qui manquent dans la section des livres à emporter se trouvent dans celle des livres à consulter, dont le catalogue n'a pas été publié jusqu'ici. On peut dire que les deux sections se complètent l'une par l'autre.

Avons-nous répondu à toutes les objections? Ce serait folie et jactance que d'oser s'y attendre : il est en l'espèce des objections comme des sables de la mer, que le vent balaye d'un côté pour les reformer plus loin.

Nous réclamons pour le travail et pour son ouvrier l'indulgence des esprits bienveillants, qui savent que "la critique est aisée et l'art difficile," et nous dirons en terminant, avec le bibliophile Jacob :

"Rien de plus facile à faire qu'un mauvais catalogue ; rien de moins facile que d'en faire un bon. Aussi les meilleurs sont-ils imparfaits."
